Japanese Woodblock Printing Adult workshop

Saturday 15th May 2010, 10am-4pm

This workshop introduces Japanese wood block printing to those with some or little experience of printmaking. You will be shown the basic technique of black and white printing using traditional Japanese materials and techniques.

This workshop is led by Hiroko Imada, a printmaker, painter and installation artist. Hiroko is a member of ACAVA Palace Wharf Studio in Hammersmith since 1999. She is a member of Japan Artists Association and International Association of Art. Hiroko studied at the Tokyo University of Art & Design and at the Slade School of Fine Art in London. Since graduation, Hiroko has exhibited widely in the UK and Japan. Her innovative work in paper and printmaking draws on both Western and Japanese traditions.

Visual references will be from the Japantastic exhibition.

. All materials will be provided but please bring an apron or old shirt

Tickets: £40, £35 concessions.

Participants in this workshop may be photographed and the resulting image may be used by MoDA for publicity purposes. If you object to being photographed, please tick this box
